I love the idea of a free bi-weekly paper for Golden. A few days ago I told my husband that I wasn't going to renew the Transcript because there is nothing in it. We have subscribed for decades but are ready for a positive change. @ Home in Golden sounds like the perfect solution.

Hi, all.

I have now been banished from advertising in the Golden Transcript since the publisher of that paper didn't like my July 31st column describing the windfall that "some local papers" are getting from foreclosure legal notices. So this week, I am announcing a concept for a new Golden free-circulation bi-weekly with the working title of "@Home in Golden". I talk about it in this week's column as well as sharing a great testimonial I received this week from a client.

As always, I appreciate your feedback and column suggestions. And I'm hoping for some feedback on the newspaper concept.

Yours,
