

Thinking of Selling? Learn What You Need to Know at a Free Listing Seminar

Perhaps you've attended one of those buyer seminars where a real estate professional explains the process and answers your questions. Well, sellers need advice too!

So, next Wednesday, Sept. 22nd, the agents of Golden Real Estate are going to hold our first ever listing seminar, where we explain that process. This 90-minute session will be held in our South Golden Road office from 6:00 to 7:30. Refreshments will be served.

This Week's Featured New Listing:

2.8-Acre Horse Property Close to Golden

If you have horses and like the idea of a horse property that's close to town, then this home may be what you've been waiting for. Located at 5180 Pine Ridge Road, it is just 1/2-mile north of Golden and 3/4-mile from White Ranch Open Space Park. How perfect is that? This home is not just zoned for horses. It is also fully equipped with horse barn, corral, pastures and a registered well approved for horses. You'll love being able to ride from home instead of trailering your horses somewhere. If you don't have horses, you could help pay your mortgage by boarding other people's horses. And there's a lot to love about this house itself, with its 4 bedrooms, 3 baths, and 2,459 square feet. Take the narrated video tour on the website and then call your agent or me for a showing!
